The image shows three horizontal rows of five empty rectangular boxes each, intended for placing cards representing notes on a xylophone. The boxes are arranged in a grid. The first row is at the top, the second row is in the middle, and the third row is at the bottom. A horizontal line connects the right side of the first row to the right side of the second row, and another horizontal line connects the right side of the second row to the right side of the third row. On the left side of the second row, a vertical line descends from the horizontal line, then turns left to form an arrow pointing into the first box of the second row. Similarly, on the left side of the third row, a vertical line descends from the horizontal line, then turns left to form an arrow pointing into the first box of the third row.
